LABOR CONFERENCE.

First Day's Proceedings of the St. Louis Meeting.

BUT VERY LITTLE ACCOMPLISHED.

Eighty-Eight Delegates Present, Representing Fourteen Different Organizations—An Unwieldy Body and but Little Prospects of Anything Definite Being Done—Miners' Strike.

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—The first day's session of the labor leaders did not accomplish very much. It is not believed the leaders have attained any definite result and, in fact, the president of one of the national organizations said last night that the failure of the conference was a foregone conclusion. "I should feel very much chagrined," said this gentleman, "if I had any part in the convening of this conference."

There were 88 delegates in the conference representing the following organizations: United Mine Workers of America, the Social Democracy, the American Federation of Labor, the Stonemasons' International union, Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, Brotherhood of Bottle-Blowers, Building Trades Council of St. Louis, the Patriots of America, International Brotherhood of Track Foremen, the Single Tax League of America, Central Labor Council of Cincinnati, the International Typographical union, the People's Party of Kansas and the International Order of Freedmen. There was one woman delegate—Mrs. Mary Jones of Chicago—who represents the Social Democracy.

W. B. Prescott of Indianapolis, president of the International Typographical union, was chosen chairman, and A. M. Pearce of Columbus secretary.

The chairman then named as the committee "on resolutions and plan of action," W. G. Pearce of the miners, W. D. Mahon of the street railway men, Victor Berger of Milwaukee, who represents the Social Democracy, in whose favor Mr. Debs declined; G. C. Clemens of Topeka, representing the Populists, and James R. Sovereign.

Mr. Ratchford then took the floor. He went over the miners' strike from its inception to the present day and dwelt particularly upon "government by injunction." He pleaded for prompt action and coming to the point of his argument, advocated a special session of congress as the best and in fact the only relief. "I believe," said Mr. Ratchford, "a special session of congress is necessary to define the rights of the people of this country—if they have any. I believe if sufficient time were given, the president of the United States will call a special session on the matter of injunctions and find means of relief from the existing troubles in the labor world. "In case of refusal," said Mr. Ratchford, "impressively, after an outburst of cheering had subsided, "it will then be time to consider more extreme measures. I am in favor of the president refusing to call congress together, of a complete paralysis of business. I believe then in a sympathetic strike."

Mr. Pat O'Neill of Rich Hill, Mo., who said he represented 1,500 unorganized "picks" favored a labor revolution. He was a socialist he said, and believed in the miners taking things in their own hands if necessary. His fiery harangue pleased the audience greatly.

Mr. Sovereign put himself on record as opposed to Mr. Ratchford's plan. He believed this would be the last convention to be held under present conditions and that the crucial test now confronted organized labor.

Mr. Mahon of Detroit said a resolutions committee was useless. The convention should vote on Ratchford's proposition and then go home. The power of the nation, he said, was in the courts, and if any body was to be convened let it be the courts. He was opposed to Mr. Ratchford's proposition.

James M. Carson, president of the Illinois miners, then recited at great length the conditions confronting the miners of his state and said he believed his men would be beaten in two weeks.

Telegrams of greeting and protests against government by injunction were received from the Populist executive committee of the Sixteenth congressional district of Ohio, the German Trades Assembly of Philadelphia, and the Atlanta Federation of Trades. A polite request to "quit monkeying and strike for single tax on land values," was then read from the Youngstown, O., single taxers and the talk went on. Mr. Ratchford took exception to Mr. Carson's statement that the Illinois miners had lost their strike. He said the miners were winning their strike and furthermore his men were not asking this convention for aid. They wanted this gathering to eradicate, if possible, the power of injunction. Taking a fling at Miner Pat Reilly he said a man who advocated the use of Winchester had no place in the convention. "Down our way," said Mr. Ratchford, "ruiners don't know how to handle guns."

James Hogan, formerly of the American Railway union, and now representing the Social Democracy of Chicago; "General" Bradley, of commonwealth fame, and "General" Heinemann, a Texas Populist, kept up the flow of words until 5 o'clock, when the convention adjourned.

The committee on resolutions and plan of action was at work all afternoon and nearly all last night formulating a plan, but declined to give any details. One member of the committee said: "The committee is running away from the issue, and I am afraid the whole thing will result in a fiasco. At any rate there will be a minority report presented with the majority. There is some talk of government ownership of mineral lands, but nothing has positively been determined upon."

The 14 different organizations represented in the convention make an unwieldy body, and it is evident that all of them can not be satisfied with a platform formulated by five men representing so many branches of organized labor.

Although present in the convention all day Mr. Debs did not speak, nor did he put in an appearance at last night's massmeeting, where he was widely advertised to make an address. He is represented on the resolutions committee, however, by Mr. Berger, and as he has remained pretty close to the gentlemen composing that committee, it is safe to say his "Social Democracy" idea will be represented.

Less than 1,000 people, among whom were a large number of ladies, assembled in Masonic hall last night to listen to addresses by prominent labor leaders brought to the city by the conference. There was much enthusiasm shown. The speakers were James R. Sovereign, grand master workman of the Knights of Labor; M. D. Ratchford, president of the National Mine Workers' union; G. C. Clemens, the Populist leader of Topeka, Kan.; W. D. Mahon, president of the Street Railway Men's association; John V. Lloyd of Chicago, a representative of Debs' Social Democracy, and Frank Stevens of the Delaware Hagle Tax League.

STRIKE IN A MUDDLE.

Some Small Operators Want to Start Their Mines, Paying the Advance.

Pittsburg, Aug. 31.—The strike situation in this district may be said to be in a muddle. It is known that when President Dolan left for St. Louis he was the bearer of an important proposition to be submitted to National President Ratchford, which asks the privilege of starting some of the mines. It has the sanction of the district officials and only needs the consent of the higher officials.

The smaller operators here will hold a meeting to agree to make whatever promises the national officers of the miners require. These operators held a meeting last week and it is said obtained 20 signatures to an agreement to pay the rate demanded, and not to sell coal to the "Big 13" combination, which controls the lake trade.

If Ratchford gives his consent, a number of mines will be started at once and in that event it is predicted the strike will soon be ended.

One of the Big 13 said last night: "If mines start under such an agreement in the Pittsburg district, the jig is up, as all of the states involved are concerned. The hour that men are given the privilege of working in the Pittsburg district, desertions from the ranks of strikers in West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will follow. If 29 mines in the Pittsburg district should start they would not find a market for more than two cars of coal a day each."

PROSPECTS OF A SETTLEMENT.

Arbitration May Be Agreed to Within the Next Forty-Eight Hours.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—A prominent coal operator in the Pittsburg district said last night that the miners' strike would probably be settled, temporarily at least, within the next 48 hours. The operators have been quietly negotiating with the miners' officials since the adjournment of the Pittsburg conference, and a settlement is believed to be close at hand. The operators offered to pay the men 64 cents a ton, pending arbitration. If the miners would consent to such an arrangement, with the distinct understanding that the arbitrators could not fix a price below 60 cents or above 69 cents.

President Ratchford made a counter-proposition for arbitration, stipulating that the men be paid 69 cents a ton, 5 cents of that price to be turned over to a trustee or trustees and to be held until the arbitration is completed and then paid to the miners if the rate is fixed at 69 cents. If the rate is fixed below that figure then a portion of the amount held by the trustees is to be given to the miners and the other related to the operators.

A telegram was received from President Ratchford with respect to the operators' proposition but it was somewhat blind, and the operators were unable to tell whether he accepted the proposition or not. It is believed, however, that he will consent to arbitration, and it is expected that work at the mines will be resumed before the close of the week.

CAUSED BY A LEAK.

An Explosion of Natural Gas That Costs a Life.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Aug. 31.—While workmen were repairing a leak in a high pressure gas line in the business portion of Dundee, this county, a terrific explosion followed, completely wrecking the drugstore of Virgil Alexander and the barbershop of Isaac Johnson.

Johnson, who lived in the same building, was frightfully burned about the face and hands and can not recover. Mrs. Johnson, who was standing in the front door at the time of the explosion, was hurled across the street with great force and is also seriously injured. A fire in the stove in the barbershop ignited the escaping gas.

BAKED KIDNED.

ELMDALE, Kan., Aug. 31.—Shortly after midnight crackers literally blew the vault of the Exchange bank to pieces. Nitroglycerin was used three times and the explosions were heard a great distance. Before the third explosion occurred the citizens surrounded the bank and fired into it promiscuously. During the excitement the robbers escaped from a rear door, taking with them $1,800 in money and $700 worth of drafts.

UNMOLESTED MARCH.

The Cuban Insurgent Army Under Quintin Banderas.

THE LENGTH OF CUBA TRAVERSED

With Twelve Thousand Men He Crossed and Recrossed the Spanish Lines Without Hindrance—The Coming Winter Campaign Will See the Spanish Army Wiped Out—Other Cuban War News.

New York, Aug. 31.—The Journal and Advertiser says: The sensational victory of the Cuban army under Maximo Gomez and Antonio Maceo the entire length of the island in Martinez Campos' time has just been duplicated by Quintin Banderas. This negro war captain, than whom no Cuban of the colored race, excepting only Maceo, perhaps, has won greater honors in the present struggle for independence, led 12,000 men from the eastern end of the island, where the patriots in arms are strongest, to the western end, where, since Antonio Maceo's death, through the treachery of his body physician, Dr. Zertucha, the Cuban cause has not prospered so well. These 12,000 men represented all branches of the Cuban army service. They penetrated into the provinces of Matanzas, Havana and Pinar del Rio, strengthening the existing forces in each of those provinces to such an extent that the coming winter campaign there may be expected to be even as disastrous for the Spanish arms as in the time of the redoubtable Maceo.

The news of the brilliant achievement was brought to The Journal and Advertiser by the mail from Havana in an autograph letter from Banderas himself. In it he requests the publication of the proclamation that he issued on taking charge of the department.

Banderas says that the second invasion of the west was made in compliance with plans that were completed by Maximo Gomez, the general-in-chief himself, in June last, and that the march was effected with little or no trouble or molestation from the Spanish troops.

"We crossed their lines again and again," he says, "but there was no fight in them, and we had no battles. Our men behaved nobly, in the face of constantly possible attacks by larger forces. There was no faltering at any time, and once more I have been able to admire the heroism of our soldiers, who have fought, are fighting and will ever fight, I am convinced, until the independence of Cuba shall have been attained."

The proclamation intimates that there have been wholesale desertions from the Spanish army in Havana province into the Cuban service, saying:

"In taking command of this province I send greeting to all its forces, but more especially to the brave Spanish soldiers of the Pizarro cavalry regiment, whom I reviewed yesterday, and those, who, filled with sympathy for an oppressed people, fighting for their liberty have come over to our files, in this way giving most direct lie to those who say that the Spanish soldier exists only to serve as food for the cannon, and for the purpose of affording means to their officers to get titles and decorations."

The rest of the proclamation is directed "to the men of my race," and is as follows:

"It only remains for me to appeal to the men of my race, to point out to them that their post of honor is here by my side, reminding them that we owe the liberty of our fathers to the revolution of 1868, and it is my duty to present to them the example of that noble figure, Major General Antonio Maceo, who died on the field for the liberty of his country."

"Listen, countrymen, when, after a battle, and, filled with national pride, we have gathered up the wounded of the enemy to give them the care that they may need, many times I have been covered with shame and my whole being has been thrilled with a terrible bitterness to see that the majority of the wounded were men of my race who were fighting against the liberty of their country."

"I am confident, countrymen, that you who have suffered so much under the despotism of Spain, that, after reading these lines, you will come to our side and enlist in the ranks of the army of this province to win a worthy place in history, and that you will determine that, so far as each of you is concerned, it will henceforth never be possible to say that the colored race of Cuba helped to clinch the manacles of tyranny on their own brothers."

"Come, then, and help us redeem the fatherland, thus complying with your duty as honored citizens. Triumph is near. Here we are all brothers. Our purpose guides us in battle—to die fighting, if necessary, for Cuba and liberty. Citizens of my race, long live free Cuba!"

HAVANA DISPATCHES.

General Weyler Out on Another Foraging Expedition.

HAVANA, Aug. 31.—After leaving Havana Sunday morning Captain General Weyler proceeded to Calzadar, Jesus del Monte, Vibora, Calvario, Arroyo and Apolo. Thence he went to Chorrera, 18 kilometers distant, the last of the line of Havana fortifications, and from there proceeded to Cattanarua in the direction of Lechuga, arriving at the village of Villa Real, near Guines, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. He inspected the line of Havana fortifications and the cultivation zone, and ordered that Vibora be surrounded by a wire fence.

The captain general is actively pushing the work of gathering cattle, but has issued an order forbidding the slaughter of yoke oxen and milch cows. He expressed approval of the system of cultivation adopted by Colonel Pagliery, who is in charge of the work.

Chief of staff, General Moncada, has been summoned from Havana by Captain General Weyler and has left to join him.

All a Mistake.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 31.—The report that the steamer Soledad of this city is to take a party of Chicago filibusters to Cuba is erroneous. The steamer has been undergoing repairs for some months, and will not be in condition for use for a long while to come. She is slow and not fitted for the filibustering business.

LUETGERT'S TRIAL BEGUN.

Two Witnesses Examined, One of Them Producing a Sensation in Court.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—The trial of Adolph Luetgert, the sausage maker, for the alleged murder of his wife on May 1 last, began in earnest yesterday. Two witnesses were examined—Diedrich Eickness, brother of Mrs. Luetgert, and Louis Luetgert, the 12-year-old son of the accused. The testimony of Eickness tended in the main to show the alleged indifference of Luetgert to the fate of his wife, and the alleged disinclination to report the matter of her disappearance to the police department.

ADOLPH LUETGERT.

Louis Luetgert, who is a remarkably bright lad for his age, produced something of a sensation in concluding his testimony and, it is believed, caused counsel for the prosecution to regret having placed him on the stand. The boy has already been examined twice as to his knowledge of his mother's disappearance, and in neither case did he refer to having heard his mother about the house after he had been sent to bed. Yesterday he recounted how he had gone to a circus on the evening of his mother's disappearance. He returned about 10:30 and found his mother to whom he described what he had seen at the circus. While engaged in this conversation, he said, his father entered the room and ordered him to bed. Later he said, he heard his father descending the rear stairway in the direction of the sausage factory.

MRS. ADOLPH LUETGERT.

This portion of his testimony was identical with that given at the preliminary hearings. But yesterday he continued by saying that after he had been asleep for a long time he was suddenly awakened by hearing a rustling of skirts in his bedroom. He called out: "Is that you, father?" but his mother's voice replied: "No, it is me."

The lad declared that he was sure that it was his mother's voice which replied to the query, and he soon went to sleep. The state's attorney asked Louis why he had not told this part of his testimony before, and he replied that no one had asked him if he had seen his mother after retiring.

Court adjourned for the day, the defense refusing to cross-examine the boy.

Squaw Commits Suicide.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Aug. 31.—The wife of Black Horse, a Cheyenne chief living in D county, committed suicide by hanging. She had been sick for some time and did the act to relieve her friends from caring for her. The husband at once burned the house and shot his finest horse. He buried his wife in state, watching the ceremonies while sitting upon the platform, dressed in tribal splendor.

An Old Soldier Missing.

RICEMOND, Ind., Aug. 31.—William Harkness, an old soldier, is missing. He left his home Saturday morning and has not been seen since. Harkness is a pensioner, and had considerable money with him when he disappeared.

GOULD, THE SHOOTIST

His Victims Do Not Want Him Punished.

BUT HIS OWN COMRADES DO.

He Has Been Released From Prison and a Courtmartial Has Been Ordered—Damaging Evidence Against Deerwester. Accident in a Paper Mill—Accidental Shooting—Other Ohio State News.

TOLEDO, Aug. 31.—A. H. Gould, the Toledo naval reserve, who shot and slightly injured two United States regulars at Mingo Junction a few days ago, is out of jail, having been released by Lieutenant Geleerd, who was acting under General Axline's orders. Gould is out on his own recognizance, but Geleerd has been instructed to order a courtmartial. Two members of the board will be Executive Officer W. G. Welton and Navigating Officer R. G. Nelson of this city. There are five more to be named.

Paymaster Dohrman, at Stenbenville, wired Geleerd as follows: "So far as the regulars and ourselves are concerned, you can let your man go." The naval reserves propose, however, to bring Gould up and punish him for his reckless and unmilitary conduct.

EVIDENCE AGAINST DEERWESTER.

The Coils Seem to Be Tightening Around the Suspect.

BELLEVILLE, O., Aug. 31.—The coils seem to be tightening around Lew Deerwester, the suspected murderer of the aged Detrick couple.

John Foss, of Thompson's drug store, says Deerwester is the man who on Wednesday, Aug. 11, tried to buy from him a bottle of laudanum, but was refused.

James Ewing, a brother-in-law of Deerwester, says the prisoner never got any money from him, and will never feel satisfied until Lew shall give a better explanation of how he got the $20 gold piece which he displayed on the day following the murder.

Further search is being made in the Detrick home for evidence.

WHEEL FLEW TO PIECES.

Two Men Injured and a Boiler Room Utterly Demolished.

MIDDLETOWN, O., Aug. 31.—Shortly after the large engine in the Gardner paper mill was started yesterday morning the large 10-foot pulley wheel which runs in the pit from the flywheel broke. The flying pieces, some of them weighing tons, were hurled through the 12-inch brick walls of the mill, tearing holes large enough to drive a team through.

Tom Ewing, the engineer, and George Smith were slightly injured. The engine and boiler room is a complete wreck, as is the engine. The actual loss to the firm will be about $5,000, but much more in the delay of their orders.

Rescued Their Pal.

RAVENNA, O., Aug. 31.—Policeman John Goodenough arrested a man with what were evidently stolen goods in his possession. Four of his pals rescued him while the officer was on his way to the county jail with his prisoner. Ravenna police officers, Sheriff Long and a posse went after the men, who disappeared in the darkness in Blackman's woods and have not been found.

INDICATIONS.—Generally fair weather; light variable winds.

The Chicago Chronicle says that "if the preparations made by the Republicans for the Ohio campaign are an indication, they must be in desperate straits in that State."

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle says that "the boasted Republican prosperity is in hope of bursting granaries, and the new tariff did not help the wheat crop in the West or add a bale to the cotton crop of the South."

Referring to the demonization of silver, the Courier-Journal in 1886 said: "What terms can properly characterize a legislative body, or a party, capable of thus studying out and perpetrating such a left-handed, sinister device for increasing, under numberless clever disguises, the burden of taxes, compelling the people to pay hundreds of millions of money for which they never received any consideration, granting to speculative capital hundreds of millions of money more than they ever loaned or advanced?"

And now "what terms can properly characterize" a paper that, after uttering such sentiments as the above, turns about and defends and excuses this "granting to speculative capital hundreds of millions of money more than they ever loaned or advanced," and seeks to perpetuate the wrong?

"The increase in the Dingley bill of the tariff on white pine to $2 per 1,000 feet and the retaliatory clause as to Canadian logs, in effect produces a double tax on white pine lumber that will increase its value to $3 and $4 per 1,000 feet above what it now costs," declares an exchange.

"And all this is done for the benefit of a few wealthy lumber men in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Every man who builds a house will find the price of his white pine lumber increased and the proceeds of his industry and economy levied upon by the government, but the extra fund he pays does not go into the United States Treasury. It goes into the pockets of these few lumbermen, who control the politics of the three States named. One of these, who is a Michigan politician, is worth $10,000,000."

DIVISION DEPUTIES

Protected by the Civil Service Law—Stamp Deputies Alone Exempt.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Acting Commissioner Wilson of the Internal Revenue Bureau to-day issued a circular to all collectors of internal revenue as follows:

In view of the fact apparent that some misapprehension prevails as to the scope of so much of civil service rule VI, as amended by the executive order of July 27th, '97, as excepts one deputy collector in each stamp collector, or branch office, from the requirements of examination and registration before the commission, it is deemed advisable to inform collectors that the excepted places relate exclusively to deputy collectors outside of the collector's office, entrusted with the sale of stamps, and not to what is known and classified as division deputies. The fact that the stamp deputy and division deputy may be assigned to the same territory or occupy the same office, does not warrant the conclusion that the division deputy may be removed and the place filled by the collector.

Courthouse Set on Fire.

BEDFORD, Ind., Aug. 31.—The interior of the county courthouse caught fire Sunday evening and much of the woodwork was destroyed, together with some records. The origin of the fire is a mystery, as the building was locked and no fires were about the place. Several theories as to the cause of the conflagration are advanced and it is hinted that something sensational will yet be developed.

Conductor Drowned.

WARSAW, Ind., Aug. 31.—While a party was taking a pleasure ride in a steamboat on Syracuse lake, Chester K. Shaffer fell overboard and was drowned. He was sitting on the edge of the boat and lost his balance. Shaffer lived at Garrett, and was a conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Nowadays when women are trying to do everything it is not strange that many things are overdone. It is not strange that there are all kinds of physical and mental disturbances. If the woman who is a doctor, or a lawyer, or a journalist, or in business would not try to be a society woman too it might be different, but the woman who knows she has done a day's work has yet to be born. Usually a woman's way is to keep doing until she drops. Working in this way has manifold evils. The most common trouble resulting from over-exertion, either mentally or physically, is constipation of the bowels, with all its attendant horrors.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most effective remedy in the market. They work upon the system easily, naturally. There is no unpleasant nausea after taking them. No griping—no pain—no discomfort. They are composed of materials that go through the system gradually, collecting all impurities and, like the good little servants that they are, disposing of them effectually.

Richard C. Williams had his fence laid down recently and a fine large Shropshire lamb weighing 110 pounds taken from his pasture. Also supposed to be taken the same time another small Southdown with black head and feet and both ears slightly clipped, but luckily the latter did not get so far from home but it wandered back, presumably through the same gap. These are not the first lambs Mr. Williams has had to mysteriously disappear from his flock and he is quite anxious to be present also on some of these occasions with his double-barrel breech-loading gun.

Few Appreciate the Dangers to which the expectant mother is exposed are so serious to her health and the dread with which she looks forward to the hour of approaching motherhood. By the use of "Mother's Friend" the body is made to yield pleasantly and without internal protest to the change it is undergoing. Headache and nausea are dispelled, the depressed and nervous feeling yields to one of pleasurable expectation. Danger to life of both mother and child is avoided, and she passes through the ordeal quickly and her recovery is rapid.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful." JOHN G. FOLBELL, MASON, GA.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

New York, Aug. 30.—Wheat—Owing to lower cables, the market opened lower. The feeling was very weak, and depressing advices from the West later caused a total decline of 3 cents in options. December was the speculative month. Cash wheat was also weak and the "dollar mark" was erased, lower prices ruling. Corn and Oats—Sympathized with wheat and worked lower. There was some activity, the decline meeting with more resistance than that of wheat.

St. Louis, Aug. 30.—Wheat—Cash, 93¢; September, 92¢; December, 92¢. Corn—Cash, 27¢; bid; September 27¢; asked.

Baltimore, Aug. 30.—Wheat—Cash, 97¢; bid; September, 97¢; bid. Corn—Cash, 3¢; September, 35¢.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Wheat—Business in the wheat pit, while fairly active to-day, was devoid of excitement. Cables described a lower market in Liverpool, and values accordingly opened down 1 cent. The rule from this on was fairly steady. Trade went over to the December option, which found good support below 90c. September wheat closed at 89c, December at 89¢ and May at 91c.

Cincinnati, Aug. 30.—It was rather quiet in grain circles to-day. There was a sharp decline in the price of wheat. The demand was very light. Corn and oats were in fair demand at steady prices. Offerings were liberal. Wheat sales; 300 bushels sample red, delivered 89c; 1 ear No. 2 red, track, 95c; 300 bushels do, 95c.

Geo. T. HUNTER,
President Board of Education.

BERNARD C. STEINER, librarian of the Enoch-Pratt library of Baltimore, has recently caused the works of four women authors to be withdrawn from the shelves of this library. The reason given for this action is that the tone of their works, if not immoral, is at least harmful. The names of the writers thus put under the ban of expurgation include that of Mrs. E. D. N. Southworth. This action has caused a shock of surprise to her many friends in Washington.
